

All & Sundry Cookies Policy

Do we use "cookies"?

Yes.

Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to your computer's hard drive through your Web browser (if you allow) that enables the site's or service provider's systems to recognise your browser and capture and remember certain information. We use cookies to help us compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction so that we can offer better site experiences and tools in the future. This is done through Google Analytics, an industry standard service which uses anonymous traffic information to indicate how our web site is being used.

We do not store any personal information within our system or any cookies. We do not provide any information to third parties relating to visits to our site. We do not support advertising in our web site.

We also use cookies to feed our actors during rehearsals, or they don't bother to turn up. However that is an entirely different thing and will not impact upon your browsing experience.
